Promote wellness in families, organizations, and society.

The IU Online BS in Applied Health Science is an interdisciplinary degree that prepares you for a high-growth job market in disease prevention, health planning, research, education, policymaking, and therapeutic intervention.

Choose your track:

- Community Health Education
  Learn to conduct general health and wellness assessments, as well as the techniques of health education. This track prepares you to take the Certified Health Education Specialist (CHES) examination.

- Health Administration
  Learn about healthcare organization, planning, budgeting, and finance.

Career Outcomes

Graduates may work in a variety of public health, wellness education, and health organization positions, including:

- Wellness coordinator
- Environmental science and protection technician
- Health specialty teacher
- Occupational health and safety technician
- Community health worker
- Health educator
- Hospital administrator (entry level)

Course Delivery

100% Online

Total Credit Hours

120

In-State Tuition Per Credit Hour

$239.01

Out-of-State Tuition Per Credit Hour

$346.89

Degree Requirements

To earn the BS in Applied Health Science, you must complete a total of 120 credit hours, including:

- General education courses
  (30–42 credit hours)
- AHS core courses (42 credit hours)
- AHS track courses (18 credit hours)
  - Community Health Education
  - Health Administration
- Electives (as needed to total 120 credit hours)

Transfer Credits

This program may be of particular interest to transfer students. You can transfer up to 64 credits from a regionally accredited community college or 90 credit hours from an accredited four-year university or college.