

MASTER OF ARTS HISTORY

Study the past. Improve the present.

The IU Online Master of Arts in History explores geographic regions of the world, with specific areas of focus such as early America, European history, Latin American history, Asian history, African history, and more. Learn to identify historical actors, events of significance, and social movements. By studying these phenomena, you become better able to understand, communicate, and work on contemporary issues in our world. Learn to recognize historiographic trends and their meanings, perform research, and construct original historical arguments.

When you graduate, you will have:

- Effective oral and written historical communication skills.
- Sharper critical-thinking skills.
- Techniques for clear and persuasive writing.
- Competencies in digital and public history.

Career Outcomes

Your IU Online MA in History helps to prepare you for work in a variety of positions:

- General researcher
- Writer or editor
- Journalist or broadcaster
- Instructor
- Library or museum worker

This degree may be of special interest to dual-credit teachers needing to meet Higher Learning Commission (HLC) guidelines.

The HLC requires dual-credit teachers to hold a master's degree in their area of instruction, or a master's degree in another area plus at least 18 credit hours of graduate coursework in their area of instruction.
